

The History and Mystery of Lizzie Borden

A Guided Tour in Fall River, Massachusetts

Lizzie Borden, circa 1893.

The house where the Bordens were murdered on August 4, 1892.

Lizzie Borden's grave, Oak Grove Cemetery.

The tour price is $50. For bookings or information, contact Michael Martins or Dennis A. Binette at Fall River Historical Society, 508-679-1071, ext. 1 or 2.

9:00

Fall River Historical Society

See the world's largest collection of original Borden case artifacts, including the alleged murder weapon and crime scene photos. Nationally recognized Lizzie Borden experts will lead your tour and answer your questions.

11:00

The Scene of the Crime: Lizzie Borden Bed & Breakfast Museum

Tour the infamous house where the Bordens were murdered. Now open to the public, it's been named one of the top 10 haunted places in the United States. See Borden memorabilia as well as the actual scene of the crime.

12:30

The Easton Tea Room

Enjoy tea sandwiches, scones, and delectable pastries in this elegant tea room in an historic 1870 house with original period detail.

2:30

Maplecroft

Take a drive by Maplecroft, Lizzie's home from 1893 until her death, plus other landmark buildings that figured in her life.

Oak Grove Cemetery

Visit the graves of Lizzie Borden and her family in a cemetery whose beauty and imposing monuments echo the wealth of Fall River's elite buried there. Some walking required.

The tour concludes at 3:15.